

Design.pdf – A document detailing how to run the import script and how the import script functions. Please note that the import script makes use of some python libraries which can be installed with pip.

Import.py – The file which imports the dimensions and builds the fact table, using the data provided in the datasets.

Datasets/ - A directory containing all of the datasets required to build the database.